

Sherry Saehlenou	Ms. Sherry Saehlenou has been a flight attendant/purser with Pan American and United Airlines and presently is a Cabin Safety Instructor for the Boeing Company. During her career in the aviation industry she was a major contributor in the post 9/11 implementation of cabin safety programs for UAL flight attendants in the European arena including critical incident training and also serving as the EAP (Employee Assistance Program) chair for the Paris Domicile.
Cabin Safety Instructor, Flight Services Boeing Email : sherry.saehlenou@boeing.com	Saehlenou has designed and delivered training programs in CRM, Cultural Differences, Cabin Safety and Security to Boeing's in-house pilots as well as Boeing's global airline customers. She serves on Boeing's Diversity Council and also is a member of the ICAO cabin safety group. She belongs to the Association for Training and Development (ASTD), Society for Intercultural Education Training and Research (SIETAR), Women in Aviation (WIA) and holds a certificate in Training and Development and a Master of Education from the University of Washington.