

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FBSK - Gabarone Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																				0600
0700																																				0700
0800																																				0800
0900																																				0900
1000																																				1000
1100																																				1100
1200																																				1200
1300																																				1300
1400																																				1400
1500																																				1500
1600																																				1600
1700																																				1700
1800																																				1800
1900																																				1900
2000																																				2000
2100																																				2100
2200																																				2200
2300																																				2300
2400																																				2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FCBB - Brazzaville Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																			0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FDMM - Matsapha Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 97%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																				0600
0700																																				0700
0800																																				0800
0900																																				0900
1000																																				1000
1100																																				1100
1200																																				1200
1300																																				1300
1400																																				1400
1500																																				1500
1600																																				1600
1700																																				1700
1800																																				1800
1900																																				1900
2000																																				2000
2100																																				2100
2200																																				2200
2300																																				2300
2400																																				2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FIMP - Mauritius Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 97%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																				0000
0100																																					0100
0200																																					0200
0300																																					0300
0400																																					0400
0500																																					0500
0600																																						0600
0700																																						0700
0800																																						0800
0900																																						0900
1000																																						1000
1100																																						1100
1200																																						1200
1300																																						1300
1400																																						1400
1500																																						1500
1600																																						1600
1700																																						1700
1800																																						1800
1900																																						1900
2000																																						2000
2100																																						2100
2200																																						2200
2300																																						2300
2400																																						2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FLLS - Lusaka Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																			0100
0200																																			0200
0300																																			0300
0400																																			0400
0500																																			0500
0600																																			0600
0700																																			0700
0800																																			0800
0900																																			0900
1000																																			1000
1100																																			1100
1200																																			1200
1300																																			1300
1400																																			1400
1500																																			1500
1600																																			1600
1700																																			1700
1800																																			1800
1900																																			1900
2000																																			2000
2100																																			2100
2200																																			2200
2300																																			2300
2400																																			2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FMMI - Antananarivo Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																		0100
0200																																		0200
0300																																		0300
0400																																		0400
0500																																		0500
0600																																		0600
0700																																		0700
0800																																		0800
0900																																		0900
1000																																		1000
1100																																		1100
1200																																		1200
1300																																		1300
1400																																		1400
1500																																		1500
1600																																		1600
1700																																		1700
1800																																		1800
1900																																		1900
2000																																		2000
2100																																		2100
2200																																		2200
2300																																		2300
2400																																		2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FMMM - Antananarivo Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 94%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FNLU - Luanda Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																			0100
0200																																			0200
0300																																			0300
0400																																			0400
0500																																			0500
0600																																			0600
0700																																			0700
0800																																			0800
0900																																			0900
1000																																			1000
1100																																			1100
1200																																			1200
1300																																			1300
1400																																				1400
1500																																				1500
1600																																				1600
1700																																				1700
1800																																				1800
1900																																				1900
2000																																				2000
2100																																				2100
2200																																				2200
2300																																				2300
2400																																				2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FQBE - Beira Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FQMA - Maputo Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																		0100
0200																																		0200
0300																																		0300
0400																																		0400
0500																																		0500
0600																																		0600
0700																																		0700
0800																																		0800
0900																																		0900
1000																																		1000
1100																																		1100
1200																																		1200
1300																																		1300
1400																																		1400
1500																																		1500
1600																																		1600
1700																																		1700
1800																																		1800
1900																																		1900
2000																																		2000
2100																																		2100
2200																																		2200
2300																																		2300
2400																																		2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FSIA - Seychelles Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from:	FVHA - Harare	Station compiling return:	Johannesburg
Station to:	Johannesburg	Month:	January 2013
		Serviceability:	99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																		0100
0200																																		0200
0300																																		0300
0400																																		0400
0500																																		0500
0600																																		0600
0700																																		0700
0800																																		0800
0900																																		0900
1000																																		1000
1100																																		1100
1200																																		1200
1300																																		1300
1400																																		1400
1500																																		1500
1600																																		1600
1700																																		1700
1800																																		1800
1900																																		1900
2000																																		2000
2100																																		2100
2200																																		2200
2300																																		2300
2400																																		2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is “IN” insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is “OUT” fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FWLL - Lilongwe Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FXMM - Maseru Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 97%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FYWH - Windhoek Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 97%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																			0100
0200																																			0200
0300																																			0300
0400																																			0400
0500																																			0500
0600																																				0600
0700																																				0700
0800																																				0800
0900																																				0900
1000																																				1000
1100																																				1100
1200																																				1200
1300																																				1300
1400																																				1400
1500																																				1500
1600																																				1600
1700																																				1700
1800																																				1800
1900																																				1900
2000																																				2000
2100																																				2100
2200																																				2200
2300																																				2300
2400																																				2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: FZAA – Kinshasa Station compiling Johannesburg
 return:
 Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is “IN” insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is “OUT” fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: GOOY - Dakar Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																		0000
0100																																			0100
0200																																			0200
0300																																			0300
0400																																			0400
0500																																			0500
0600																																				0600
0700																																				0700
0800																																				0800
0900																																				0900
1000																																				1000
1100																																				1100
1200																																				1200
1300																																				1300
1400																																				1400
1500																																				1500
1600																																				1600
1700																																				1700
1800																																				1800
1900																																				1900
2000																																				2000
2100																																				2100
2200																																				2200
2300																																				2300
2400																																				2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: HBBA – Bujumbura Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is “IN” insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is “OUT” fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out:0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: HKJK – Jomo Station compiling Johannesburg
Kenyata return:
Station to: Johannesburg Month: January 2013
Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																						1100
1200																																						1200
1300																																						1300
1400																																							1400
1500																																							1500
1600																																							1600
1700																																							1700
1800																																							1800
1900																																							1900
2000																																							2000
2100																																							2100
2200																																							2200
2300																																							2300
2400																																							2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is “IN” insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
When a circuit is “OUT” fill square according to this code.
Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: HKNA - Nairobi Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: HRYP - Kigali Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																					1800
1900																																					1900
2000																																					2000
2100																																					2100
2200																																					2200
2300																																					2300
2400																																					2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: SAEZ - Ezeiza Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
0000																																			0000
0100																																				0100
0200																																				0200
0300																																				0300
0400																																				0400
0500																																				0500
0600																																					0600
0700																																					0700
0800																																					0800
0900																																					0900
1000																																					1000
1100																																					1100
1200																																					1200
1300																																					1300
1400																																					1400
1500																																					1500
1600																																					1600
1700																																					1700
1800																																						1800
1900																																						1900
2000																																						2000
2100																																						2100
2200																																						2200
2300																																						2300
2400																																						2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

AFTN CIRCUIT PERFORMANCE

Station from: LEEE - Madrid Station compiling Johannesburg
 Station to: Johannesburg return:
 Month: January 2013
 Serviceability: 99%

Time	DATES																															Time
0000	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	0000
0100																																		0100
0200																																		0200
0300																																		0300
0400																																		0400
0500																																		0500
0600																																		0600
0700																																		0700
0800																																		0800
0900																																		0900
1000																																		1000
1100																																		1100
1200																																		1200
1300																																		1300
1400																																		1400
1500																																		1500
1600																																		1600
1700																																		1700
1800																																		1800
1900																																		1900
2000																																		2000
2100																																		2100
2200																																		2200
2300																																		2300
2400																																		2400

Instruction for completion. When circuit is "IN" insert figure in appropriate square, indicating Order of Frequency (MHZ) employed.
 When a circuit is "OUT" fill square according to this code.
 Total Number of hours out: 0hrs
 Line Faults (LTT) or

Remarks:

The AMSS was out of service for 2 hours on Mon Jan 28, it has been running since Mon Jan 28 03:11:10 2013