

Otibho Edeke-Agbareh

Otibho Edeke-Agbareh joined Kenyon in 2018 as the Humanitarian Service Manager. She is responsible for Kenyon's Disaster Human Services Programme, managing the care and support of families and survivors following disasters. She also manages Kenyon's Mental Health Service and is an experienced crisis management trainer. Otibho has over 10 years' experience working as a Specialist Major Trauma OT and is a member of UK-MED. She has significant humanitarian experiences in places such as Gaza, Tanzania and Brazil.