

Pamela Suárez

Pamela Suárez, is an Executive MBA, with more than 20 years of experience in public management in different government levels. Currently, she is the secretary of administration and responsible of the program “Patient Safety Culture” in the health department in the state of Santa Fe, Argentina. During the last 10 years, she has prepared, trained and specialized in organizational and human factors that apply to operational safety and organizations management.

From 2013 to 2020, she was the Chairwoman of the Civil Aviation Accident Investigation Board (JIAAC), first decentralized organism of accident investigation in Latin America. In charge of the project, Technical Cooperation ARG/10/801 (2012-2020) that was recognized for its outstanding implementation and aim achievements, by ICAO through the secretary Dr. Fang Liu. Chairwoman of the Executive Commission representing the National Transport Department of Argentina, and of “National Investigation Commission of Marine Incidents (2018-2020)” that will establish the bases for the implementation of modal independent investigation in the Republic of Argentina. Promoter in the transformation of the investigation organism in civil aviation in the first multimodal investigation accident organism in Hispanic language (JST). Chaired from 2005 to 2020 the Regional Cooperation Mechanism AIG (ARCM) for the region of South America, which was recognized due to its great contribution towards ICAOs initiative “No Country Left Behind” (NCLB) searching for regional standards that will improve the effective implementation of the USOAP audits in the Latin American region. Implemented the first protocol of Information to victims and families in air accidents, in the investigation organism of accidents of the Republic of Argentina, being today of mandatory application to all transport means.