

Biography Information

Speaker's Name:

Mr. Charles Chaha

Affiliation/Company:

Tanzania Civil Aviation Authority

Title/Position:

Acting Director General

Brief Biography of Speaker:

Mr. Charles Chacha is a Degree Holder in Masters of Business Administration (MBA); Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.Ed (Hons)); Post Graduate Diploma in Law (PGDLMA); and Fellow to the Chartered Institute for Logistics and Transport of UK (FCILT). He has been in civil aviation for 37 years working in different capacities and has attended several courses including ICAO TRAINAIR Course Development, Senior Civil Aviation Management and Aeronautical Radio Maintenance just to mention a few. Mr. Chacha started his career in civil aviation as Assistant Maintenance Engineer Trainee in 1976 at the East African School of Aviation in Nairobi, Kenya.

In 1977 he was recruited in the Directorate of Civil Aviation Tanzania (DCA) as an Operations Engineering Technician at Julius Nyerere International Airport and In 1982 he was moved to the DCA headquarters to be a Training Coordinator, the post he held until his appointment as Chief Instructor at the Civil Aviation Training Centre (CATC), where in 2005 he became Principal until 2009 when he was appointed Director of Air Navigation Services. In April 2014, Mr Charles Chacha was appointed by the Minister of Transport to be the Acting Director General of the Tanzania Civil Aviation Authority, a post he holds to date.