

Fathi ATTI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - AEROPOLITICAL AND CORPORATE AFFAIRS, QATAR AIRWAYS

Fathi Atti is an aviation expert specialized in Commercial Strategy, Network Planning and Government & Aeropolitical Affairs. Fathi brings with him a wealth of over 35 years of aviation experience in various key roles across international organizations such as the Arab Air Carrier Organization (AACO) and the International Air Transport Association (IATA) as well as global carriers; starting from training as part of PDNA program at Lufthansa in the early 1980s excelling through to various leadership roles at IATA, Kuwait Airways, Emirates Airlines, Etihad Airways and Qatar Airways.

He is a post-graduate from Switzerland, holding various academic qualifications in aviation training, commercial management, network planning and aviation law.

Fathi has worked at 30 different outstations and airports worldwide and he has been instrumental in various IATA projects and initiatives including the establishment of IATA regional training centers in the early 1980s up to IATA's Agenda for Freedom in 2009 followed by the IATA world Passenger Symposium 2012.

As Senior Vice President - Aeropolitical and Corporate Affairs at Qatar Airways, Fathi is in charge of developing, implementing and leading the aeropolitical, regulatory and corporate affairs strategies.