

SAVE THE DATE!

NEXT GENERATION OF AVIATION PROFESSIONALS
GLOBAL SUMMIT
AND SPECIAL MODEL ICAO FORUM
ICAO HQ MONTRÉAL, 27-28 NOV 2017

Join us for a special student-focused event during ICAO's first-ever
Next Generation Aviation Professionals Global Summit!

The International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and the Concordia Model United Nations Education and Leadership Centre (ConMUN) will be holding a special student-focused Model ICAO Forum during this year's ICAO Next Generation of Aviation Professionals (NGAP) Global Summit, held at the UN agency's Montréal Headquarters.

College and university students will work together to propose solutions to an aviation Case Study presented to a panel of aviation experts, with prizes for the winning submissions and the chance to be published by ICAO.

Participants will also have an opportunity to attend the NGAP Global Summit and engage with aviation professionals from corporate, government, and academic programmes, and gain in-depth knowledge about the global needs for skilled engineers, pilots, technicians, lawyers, and managers in the years ahead.

Why should YOU attend?

- Network with aviation and other professionals from Government, Industry and Academia
- Learn and make contacts at the special Summit Career Fair and Speed Mentoring sessions
- Participate in an International Competition bringing together students from across the globe
