9.3 It is important to apply for visas in advance and at least two weeks before the start of meeting to avoid delays and inconveniences.

10. Health

10.1 It is strongly recommended for participants to have travel insurance (including health) for the duration of their stay in Kenya. Participants should particularly ensure that their insurance is applicable in Kenya. Furthermore, they should carry evidence of current health/hospitalization insurance such as cards that may be produced to health institutions should the need arise.

10.2 Presentation of a valid yellow fever certificate at the point of entry is required for persons who originate from or have travelled to States where yellow fever is described by the World Health Organization (WHO), as endemic, including the following States:

Angola, Benin, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Comoros, Central African Republic, Chad, Congo, DRC, Ivory Coast, Ethiopia, Gabon, Gambia, Ghana, Guinea Bissau, Guinea Equatorial, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania, Mozambique, Niger, Nigeria, Somalia, Congo, Rwanda, São Tomé and Príncipe, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Tanzania, Togo and Uganda.

10.3 Persons who fail to produce a valid yellow fever vaccination certificate to the port health officials may be required to take the vaccination at the point of entry against payment of US$15 (subject to change by the appropriate authority). The officials may take other action in accordance with applicable regulations and procedures. For more information participants may wish to visit the World Health Organization (WHO) website Error! Hyperlink reference not valid.for information on Kenya.

10.4 All travelers arriving in the country through any point of entry shall no longer be required to show proof of either COVID-19 vaccination or pre-departure COVID-19 test. Only travelers arriving at any port of entry into Kenya with flu-like symptoms will be required to fill out the passenger locator form on the 'jitenge' platform: https://ears.health.go.ke/airline\_registration/ they will also be required to take a COVID-19 antigen test upon arrival at their own cost. Those who turn out positive for antigen tests will be required to take a further COVID-19 PCR test at their own cost. Those with severe symptoms shall thereafter be allowed to isolate as per the prevailing isolation requirements for mild, moderate, and severe disease. Passengers traveling out of the country will be required to abide by the particular travel, health, and COVID-19-related requirements of the transit and destination country.

12 Weather

12.1 While Nairobi is very close to the Equator (about 1.3<sup>0</sup> S), it is located at a relatively high elevation of about 5000 feet (1524m) above mean sea level. In October, the mean minimum/maximum temperatures are 15<sup>0</sup>C and high up to 26<sup>0</sup>C.

13 Local Currency and Foreign Exchange Rates

13.1 The basic unit of currency is the Kenyan shilling (Kshs.), which is divided into 100 cents. There are silver and bronze coins of 1, 5, 10, 20 and 40 shillings. Notes are issued in denominations of 50, 100, 200, 500 and 1000 shillings.

- 13.2 The Kenya shilling exchange rates are determined by the interbank trade which varies daily. Participants may wish to obtain current information from the internet.
- 13.3 Commercial banks and forex bureaux provide exchange facilities. Most banks are open between 9.00 am to 4.00 pm from Monday to Friday and between 9.00 am to 12.00 noon on the first and last Saturday of the month. Some forex bureaux may be open outside these hours. Hotels also offer exchange facilities but at an extra fee and/or less favourable rates. On arrival at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (JKIA), forex services are available within customs hall, from 7.00 am to midnight.

14 Electricity

- 14.1 Kenya uses the British system's standard three-pin sockets. The domestic power voltage is 240 volts. Participants are encouraged to ensure compatibility with their gadgets or to have international power adapters.

15 Security

- 15.1 Participants are advised to check with the hotel reception regarding security within the surrounding areas. It is also advisable to use taxis or transport arranged by the hotel reception or use of UBER to visit shopping complexes, to go sightseeing or to travel for any other purpose.
