

ICAO REGIONAL SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYMPOSIUM
THE JOURNEY TO ACHIEVING EFFECTIVE SAFETY MANAGEMENT
North American, Central American and Caribbean & South American Regions

13-16 March 2018, Lima, PERU

Gabriel ACOSTA
Assistant Director Safety & Flight Operations,
The Americas, IATA

Since 2010, Mr. Gabriel Acosta has been working as Assistant Director Safety and Flight Operations – The Americas at IATA – International Air Transport Association, Americas Regional Office, Miami – USA. He has been in charge of the implementation and management of the Global Aviation Data Management program “GADM”. He is also IATA’s representative to the USA CAST (Commercial Aviation Safety Team), IATA’s representative to the Regional Aviation Safety Group – Pan-American (RASG-PA), Co-Chair of RASG-PA’s Regional Aviation Safety Team “PA-RAST”, and Responsible for IATA’s IOSA and ISSA certification programs for Airlines in the Americas Region.

Previously in 2009, Mr. Acosta was working as an Aircraft Accident Investigator. In 2005, he graduated from Cranfield University, England, with a Master of Science, Business Administration (MDI). In 2003, Mr. Acosta graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Engineering from the Universidad San Francisco de Quito/Universidad Politécnica de Madrid and Embry Riddle Aeronautical University, Daytona Beach, FL.

From May 2007 to July 2010, Mr. Acosta was working as a Safety Manager from LAN Ecuador, Guayaquil – Ecuador, and was in Charge of the Integrated Airline Management System: Safety, Quality, Emergency Response Plan, Security and Environmental Management Systems for the LAN Airlines Group in Ecuador.