

Kenneth P. QUINN
General Counsel and Secretary, Flight Safety Foundation

Mr. Kenneth Quinn is a partner at Baker McKenzie in the Washington, DC office. He is Global Chair, Aviation, and co-chair of Baker's Unmanned Aircraft Systems practice.

He acts as litigation, regulatory, enforcement, antitrust, and commercial counsel to several domestic and international airlines, aerospace companies, lenders/lessors, private equity/hedge funds, online travel and social media companies, developers and other aviation companies.

Mr. Quinn has served as general counsel and secretary of the Flight Safety Foundation for the past 15 years. He is a former chief counsel of the US Federal Aviation Administration (1991-93), counselor to the Secretary of Transportation (1989-91), and senior advisor to the Office of the President-Elect (1988). He is a fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society, is counsel to its DC Branch, and serves on the RAeS Membership Board. He served as President of the International Aviation Club (2015-16).