

ICAO REGIONAL SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYMPOSIUM
THE JOURNEY TO ACHIEVING EFFECTIVE SAFETY MANAGEMENT
North American, Central American and Caribbean & South American Regions

13-16 March 2018, Lima, PERU

Manuel CÁCERES
Director, ACSA-COCESNA

General Caceres is a retired pilot of the Honduran Air Force. He graduated from the Military Aviation Academy of the Air Force and holds a Master's Degree in Security and Defense and a Bachelor's degree in Aeronautical Sciences. General Caceres has been General Director of the Honduran Civil Aviation Authority, Member and former President of the Directive Council of the Central American for Air Navigation Corporation (COCESNA), President of the Administrative Council of the International Finance Corporation (COFINTER), General Commander of the Honduran Air Force and Former Director of the National Defense School.

Mr. Caceres has a post degree in Senior Management of the Honduran National Autonomous University, and graduated from Air University in Maxwell AFB, Alabama, from The William Perry Center for Hemispheric Defense Studies in Washington, as well as from the Fu Shin Kan School from Taiwan. He also graduated from High Strategic Studies in the National Defense and Security Study Centre and from the Executive Program for Aviation Authorities in the Aviation Academy in Singapore among others.

Presently, General Caceres is the Director of the Central American Agency for the Aviation Safety (ACSA), which is a branch of the Central American for Air Navigation Corporation (COCESNA), an International Central American Integration Organism.