

Tatiana PAK

Secretary of the ICAO Safety Information Protection Expert Group, Air Navigation Bureau, ICAO

Ms. Tatiana Pak has been employed in the fields of public international law, commercial law, air law and development of technical regulations for over ten years. She is currently responsible for the work related to safety information protection and aircraft leasing at ICAO, and her duties include serving as the Secretary of the Safety Information Protection Implementation Group and Cross-border Transferability Task Force.

Prior to joining ICAO, Tatiana worked for the International Air Transport Association (IATA) and the Government of Kyrgyzstan. Ms. Pak holds a graduate degree in law and a PhD in International Relations.