

Getting More People to Fly

Flight Plan

Marc-Antoine Plourde, DePlour Lucas van Gerwen, VALK Foundation

To improve the wellbeing of everybody who is flying or wants to fly

-Sharing knowledge-Open discussion-Active discussion

Experts from the fear of flying field, from aviation, travel agencies, policy makers, and many others

ICAO State Countries

Airlines

Airports

Fear of flying treatment facilities

IATA – International Air Transport Association

IAPA – International Airline Passengers Association

AMA – Aerospace Medical Association

CATSA – Canadian Air Transport Security Authority

AFA – American Association of Flight Attendants

ITF – International Transport Workers' Federation

CAA – Civil Aviation Authority (UK)

WAEA - World Avaiation Entertainment Association

ACTA – Association of Canadian Travel agencies

RAF - Royal Air Force

ICAO Delegates

Psychologists

Therapists

Pilots

Cabin crew

Representatives of aviation organizations

Security experts

Journalists

Students

To produce recommendations that will be submitted to ICAO for consideration in its on-going work.

topics

debate

ideas

challenging

inspiring provocative questions

remarks

innovative out of the box

brainwaves

Housekeeping items

The PROGRAMME for WEDNESDAY

Final version will be handed out on Tuesday

NETWORK

Information sheet

Please return to Ans Vos

APA forms

Please return to Ans Vos

GROUP PHOTO

Today 11.15
Outside on the steps

Tuesday 15.40 Delegates Lounge

Continue our discussion With food and wine

17.30 COCKTAIL

Le Quartier
Dinner opportunity

3rd World Conference on Fear of Flying

ICAO Headquarters,
Montréal, Canada
June 4 – 6, 2007
GettingMorePeopleToFly.com

The invited speaker:

Drs. Bram Gräber, Senior Vice President and Area Manager Benelux of Air France-KLM